Catholic Schools Guide

Greg Campitelli
Publishing Editor

Welcome to Catholic Schools Guide, 2024 edition.
Each year, our Guide carries a different theme and this year it is 'Our Past, Our Present, Our Future'.

Education draws heavily on its past in order to inform its present and also its future. Our past has involved in-person delivery of information in classroom settings, and this is still the case for the most part, but the changes brought on by the pandemic have also ushered in new ways of delivering education in online settings, at different times, to mixed groups and to students in different places. The rise of AI technologies has also forced us to ask questions about how we get students to work, how we assess, what knowledge generation means and looks like. At Catholic Schools Guide, we think the future is an emerging and evolving landscape, like education itself, ever-changing and exciting.

Sydney Catholic Schools

We are proud that Sydney Catholic Schools is a major supporter. Please read the words of Executive Director, Tony Farley who shares his thoughts on the success of Catholic education. He is joined by fellow feature writers Phil Lewis, Executive Officer, Catholic Secondary Principals Australia (CaSPA) which is the national peak body for Australian Catholic Secondary School Principals; and Rae Nelson, Board President, Gap Year Association, USA.

Artist in Residence - Lua Pellegrini - Wiradjuri

The core value of our Guide rests in the continuous quest for change to search for greater equality and celebration of Australia's

First People. Our design team has now permanently incorporated motifs that pay homage to our extraordinary beautiful Indigenous cultural art. This is thanks to the work of a young Wiradjuri woman, Lua Pellegrini, who works closely with our production team to produce the stunning artwork you see.

"My cover artwork depicts our theme for the year - Past, Present and Future. The artwork features colours that reflect the Aboriginal Flag, the black symbolises the Aboriginal people, the red represents the earth and the circle of yellow represents the sun, the constant renewer of life. The circles on the cover represent all people on this Country and how we are all connected to this place and part of a shared journey."

Educational excellence in action

By Tony Farley

Executive Director of Sydney Catholic Schools

Large-scale collaboration, a driving commitment to educational excellence, and emphasis on personal and academic growth has cemented Sydney Catholic Schools' reputation as one of the top performing school systems in Australia.

At Sydney Catholic Schools we provide close to 73,000 students across 147 primary, secondary and K-12 schools in the Archdiocese of Sydney with a comprehensive, high-quality and affordable Catholic education.

Our schools cater for a diverse student population with a school curriculum that builds core literacy, numeracy, STEM, language, vocational and entrepreneurial skills.

Equity and excellence are guiding principles for the myriad sport, creative and performing arts, faith, social outreach and leadership opportunities they offer.

"Our mission at Sydney Catholic Schools is simple yet profound: to know and love Christ through learning." - Tony Farley

Sydney Catholic Schools' students consistently perform strongly in NAPLAN and the HSC, a product of high expectations, excellent teaching and strong pastoral care.

In the 2022 HSC, nine SCS schools ranked in the top 100 with more than half of our secondary schools ranked in the top 150. Add 2,630 distinguished achievers into the mix and it is fair to say we are very proud of the dedication of students and staff and the supportive, faith-filled environment that leads them to such outstanding achievements.

These successes are built on a system-wide approach to curriculum that enables our schools to share expertise, scale best practice, and access strategies to maximise learning growth through our dedicated Education and Research team.

This approach ensures a focus on meaningful data, key metrics and ambitious goal setting for students that is essential to their academic success.

"Our teachers are committed to nurture all students' natural curiosity and give them every opportunity to thrive."

A cross-disciplinary approach to the learning and application of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) helps students develop the ability to solve real-world problems and to examine these through a critical lens.

Sydney Catholic Schools' rigorous Newman Selective Gifted Education Program supports gifted learners, while Vocational Education and Training (VET) program provides valuable opportunities for secondary school students to gain practical skills and nationally-recognised qualifications through school-based traineeships across a large range of industries.

Last year alone, more than 1,300 students attained a National Qualification Certificate I, II or III and six of these students placed in the HSC Top Achievers list.

At Sydney Catholic Schools, sport is not just for the elite athlete. The system provides an inclusive variety of sports for students of all ages and abilities in both competitive and non-competitive settings.

Parents, students and teachers at Sydney Catholic schools are also seeing the many research-supported benefits of learning an orchestral instrument as part of the groundbreaking Amadeus Music Education Program.

The program is embedded in the school curriculum for the 33,000 students in Year 3 to 8 across our 147 schools. They are tutored by professionals who have performance experience in orchestras and ensembles around the world.

Our mission at Sydney Catholic Schools is simple yet profound: to know and love Christ through learning. Our welcoming communities are staffed by dynamic and caring teachers who ensure that every child is able to embrace and explore their unique potential.

Practitioner Voice: The Educational Value And Importance

By Phil Lewis

Executive Officer, Catholic Secondary Principals Australia (CaSPA)

The principle of subsidiarity and the Catholic Church was published some years ago by Andrew Murray. In the article he explained the importance of Catholic Social Teaching, which includes the principle of subsidiarity. The fundamental principle is that every social activity should, by its very nature, prove a help to members of the body social, it should never destroy or absorb them. In the Dominican tradition, subsidiarity was providing an opportunity for those affected by decision makers to contribute to the decision. In more contemporary terms, this principle could be named as providing a VOICE to the members of a community or organisation.

Parent Voice

Catholic schools have a multitude of ways that parents can share their views and work in partnership. These include School Boards, School Parents & Friends, local and national Parent Associations (e.g. CaSPA) and, of course, through the Learning Management Systems (LMS), which exist in schools today. There is a significant body of research that clearly demonstrates the effectiveness of parent / school partnerships in the social and academic development of students.

Student Voice

Students are the people who are directly or indirectly affected by all decisions made in schools. Hence, as the research of Russell Quaglia and others would argue, students have practitioner insights into the operation of a school. They are central to the action and they can offer valuable information and contribute possible solutions for school leadership.

Teacher Voice

The research of Helen Timperley and others has demonstrated that the teacher voice in their professional learning is vital for relevance and their authentic engagement. Teachers' ongoing commitment to their learning has also been reinforced through the work of AITSL and further evidenced in the National Teacher Standards. The context of a school is very important and, therefore, professional learning is most effective when it is tailored to the needs of the teacher and the school.

Principal Voice

Systems and governments throughout Australia, in a similar vein, need to value the voice of the school principals who are central to the action, are in touch and possess a legitimacy of contextual educational knowledge. Principals not only provide feedback and ideas for initiatives, but they also provide the valuable agency through their professional associations to introduce change and development in Australian education.

Conclusion

As with many other matters in education, there are many agencies and levels of government to be consulted for any lasting change to occur. As one of the three education systems, Catholic school parents, students, teachers and principals are an important voice to inform continuous improvement in Australian education.

Arguably, teachers and principals have a unique perspective that must continue to be valued in Australian education. They are the teachers and the leaders innovating in classrooms and schools. They are reflecting on their practice through sharing powerful experiences. They are also sharing new ways of thinking about education, leading, teaching and learning along with their students. They are actually doing the work!

In conclusion, the practitioner 'voice' and how we hear it has undergone significant change from the past to our present. Hopefully this voice will be enhanced even more the future.

The Gap-Year Advantage: Toward Personal Growth, Global Perspectives, and Fulfilling Futures

By Rae Nelson

President of the Board of Directors of the non-profit Gap Year Association

Each Autumn, Year 12 students across Australia consider their paths for post-graduation. For many, the expectation is to pursue tertiary or vocational education or directly enter the workforce. A small and growing number of students will take a path less travelled and opt for a gap year before venturing into the next chapter of their lives.

What Is a Gap Year?

A gap year is an intentional investment of time (e.g. a few months or more) devoted to personal growth and exploration through experiential learning opportunities. It generally takes place between secondary and tertiary education and involves a series of activities that can include volunteering, travelling, interning and studying with the goal of entering university or a meaningful career. Those who choose this option describe the experience as transformational in the most positive sense.

Why Take a Gap Year?

As Lewis Carroll stated in the classic book for all generations, Alice in Wonderland, "If you don't know where you're going, any road will take you there."

For many students, the road of formal education through year 12 is guided by living up to others' expectations. You work for grades and extra-curricular activities and to most effectively complete applications based on how others define success.

What if there was a built-in investment of time to take a step off the well-worn path of expectations to explore the world around and within you? To begin to discover what your true gifts and passions are and what you value in life? To develop maturity and skills that will set you up for fulfillment in further education and careers for decades to come? To position you to give back to your community from a place of self-awareness and strength?

What Is the Impact of Gap Years?

The questions above begin to frame some of the documented benefits of investing time in a gap year. Research shows that outcomes include the following:

- Personal growth and development – increased self-awareness, maturity, focus, discipline and confidence.
- Global perspective – gaining understanding about different cultures and developing cultural awareness; becoming more of a global citizen.
- Connecting real-world and academic experiences – having a greater appreciation of further education through being able to understand how classroom lessons apply in the real world.
- Career exploration – discovering more about what makes sense for you in terms of academic focus or careers (or learning more about what you don't want to pursue).
- Emotional intelligence and well-being – gap time can reduce burnout and stress and lead to increased emotional resilience.
- Developing essential skills – gappers develop skills such as communication, teamwork, problem solving, adaptability and more that tie to success in school and work.
- Financial responsibility – gapping can lead to increased financial awareness and preparation for financial independence.
- Giving back and community engagement – many gappers contribute to social causes and demonstrate civic responsibility; they integrate giving back and contributing to a greater good as priorities throughout their life's journey.

Our Past, Our Present, Our Future

Gap years can offer a meaningful thread in the tapestry of Our Past, Our Present, Our Future. This intentional time involves reflecting on the past, engaging fully in the present, and helping position young people for a future that is fulfilling on multiple meaningful levels. The tapestry has the potential to expand exponentially to impact their communities and the world through the service of those who take the path less travelled.

Students who are interested will find that there are myriad gap experiences that they can explore. As one gap alum said, "If you can dream it, you can do it!" And in the words of a gap year parent, "Let them fly. You have no idea how high they can go!"

Rae Nelson is President of the Board of Directors of the non-profit Gap Year Association. She served at The White House as Associate Director for Education Policy. A gap year parent and advocate, she is co-author of The Gap-Year Advantage: Helping Your Child Benefit from Time Off Before or During College (St. Martin's Press).

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

CASIMIR CATHOLIC COLLEGE is a Year 7-12 co-educational College which was established in 1983 from the amalgamation of De La Salle College and St Brigid's College, both of which had been landmark schools in the Marrickville area dating back to the 1930s.

The College exists to meet the educational needs of children from Marrickville and surrounding suburbs. It has a rich tradition, steeped in the values and customs of three religious orders: The Good Samaritan Sisters, the De La Salle Brothers and the Passionist Fathers.

The College is renowned for its genuine sense of community, friendly campus, vibrant, diverse and dynamic feel. The College has great relations with St Brigid's Church, Marrickville, and very close connections with our feeder primary schools.

We aim to provide quality Catholic education with a focus on academic excellence – in turn, creating quality graduates with high standards and expectations, motivating and challenging students to achieve their potential. We endeavour to create a very organised, structured and settled environment.

The Newman Selective Gifted Education Program enriches and extends students to be curious, creative and critical thinkers. At Casimir we are committed to educating our students to be strong, respectful global citizens.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

Educational Philosophy

The goal of the College is to provide quality Catholic education. We have a clear focus on academic excellence for all students.

Our philosophy is based on the premise that good education involves setting high standards and motivating and challenging students to achieve those standards.

We believe that good learning takes place in an organised, structured and disciplined environment. We have very clear expectations for our students in respect to the College uniform, grooming, manners, conduct, attitude and commitment to homework.

Respect for others is one of the College's basic rules. Every student is an individual and every student is important, irrespective of his or her class, age, colour, religion or ability. We challenge our students to respect the person, the name and the property of every other student in the college.

The staff and students at Casimir respect each other and, as a result, there is a very happy and positive spirit within the school.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

At Clancy Catholic College, we have a reputation for excellence in all that we do. We make no apologies for setting high expectations and for challenging all students to be the very best they can be. At the same time, students are supported by a very caring, motivated and professional staff. Our Newman Selective Gifted Education Program provides a challenging curriculum aimed at developing the potential of our gifted students. We also recognise and cater for students whose skills and attributes are likely to take them into the trades and technical fields. We accept that it is our responsibility to develop every child to their full potential.

At Clancy, we nurture a love of Christ, of learning and of each other. We are a welcoming Catholic community and pride ourselves on the quality of the respectful relationships between students, parents and teachers.

These relationships are built on our core values: Faith, Compassion, Hope, Pride, Relationships, Respect and Service. We are inspired by our motto, 'To Love Like Christ'. At Clancy, we are proudly Catholic, though receptive to all who share our Christian values.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

Clancy was founded in 2006 to meet the needs of a growing community in the West Hoxton area. The College began with 55 enrolments and 10 staff members and has quickly grown to a school of well over 1200 students with approximately 130 staff. Whilst we are still a young school (only 19 years old in 2024), we have quickly gained a reputation as a school that performs extremely well academically, as shown by our outstanding HSC results.

This early and ongoing academic success is due to a clear vision that focuses on excellence and high expectation for both students and staff. The College fully expects to continue to improve in terms of academic standing via a focus on educational research and student engagement.

Our College crest – created in partnership with our patron, Cardinal Clancy – tells us a great deal about our past, present and future. The cross reminds us that our College, and our lives, are centred on Jesus. At the base of the College Crest is the symbol of the Word of God which was taken directly from Cardinal Clancy's crest. We intend to never lose sight of this early vision for the College and how our College motto, 'To Love Like Christ', challenges us to be the very best human beings we can be, inspired by the words and actions of Jesus.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Domremy is set on idyllic grounds in a picturesque part of Sydney. The large campus, renovated and renewed over the years, allows Domremy women to learn in modern settings with a vast amount of specialisation, from Drama and the Creative Arts through to STEM, Philosophy and Ethics. Domremy has a history of high expectations nurtured by high support and wellbeing from a dedicated and experienced staff.

Domremy has a very positive reputation in the local community. Community links are varied and students are regular participants in community activities, events and competitions. With a high number of feeder schools, Domremy women are wonderful role models to younger students. This is seen in student support of primary sacramental programs, primary school visits, Catechist classes or umpiring and refereeing sport gala days.

Dedicated staff oversee expansive co-curricular and extra-curricular programs which allow students opportunities to specialise in areas of interest, sample different clubs and activities or demonstrate leadership. A dedicated focus on growth mindset, excellence and a Learning and Wellbeing Framework encompassing Voice, Exploration, Relationships, Insight, Thought and Engagement, means Domremy women are ready to let their lanterns shine!

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

The spirit of the Presentation charism permeates all that is Domremy College. The first Presentation school established in Sydney by the sisters after arriving from Ireland, Domremy College values all that is Presentation. Whether this be the caring and warm welcome to newcomers, seen in our Big Sister program and dedicated Transition and Learn-to-Learn programs, pragmatic innovations brought about by social justice programs, Domremy College is a lantern to all who follow Jesus' footsteps in the way of Nano Nagle. Growing enrolments, new curriculum offerings and dedicated staff, mean the present for Domremy College is exciting and invigorating.

Partnerships with parents have strengthened over the years with authentic understandings of Domremy's academic opportunities and significant pastoral care resources and programs giving parents and carers peace of mind as their daughters traverse and navigate the modern world. Students can choose from a broad (and expanding) curriculum (both on and off campus) and make the most of strong relationships with neighbouring schools, education and training providers, online learning and community schools.

Growing investment in the Creative Arts and STEM, while continuing to ensure expert professional learning for staff, has Domremy well set up for the future and all it entails.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

Holy Cross College, Ryde - Educating boys for Life, Learning and Leadership.

Holy Cross is proudly a jewel in the crown of Catholic education within the Archdiocese of Sydney. A focus on achievement and developing the 'whole student' has led to our recent successes in both the HSC and on the sporting field. Academically the last three years have seen the best HSC Results of the past decade with excellence in Mathematics, Science and Technology. Our rich 130-year tradition and outstanding facilities serve as a counterbalance to the sometimes sedentary and virtual demands of our technology-driven world. The highest standards of sporting excellence are an expectation at Holy Cross and the reason why the College is known nationwide as a hub of success producing famed Australian Athletes dating back to the early 1900s. Sporting and Co-Curricular success is a part of the focus on developing the 'whole person' and giving every student a chance to pursue their passion spiritually, intellectually and physically. The values specific to our Patrician legacy of modesty in victory, care for others and preferential treatment for the poor help to create a tremendous school spirit perfect for boys' education.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

A School with Spirit

Step through the front gates of Loreto Kirribilli and you will encounter what is warmly referred to throughout our community as our school 'spirit'. Intangible, indefinable, our school spirit is the reason our harbourside campus is vibrant, welcoming and full of life, and why every student develops a deep sense of belonging to a rich community of faith. It is our spirit that imbues every learning opportunity, every feast day and extra-curricular activity. Perhaps it is the very same spirit that over 400 years ago gave our Loreto foundress, Mary Ward, the courage and strength of faith to establish her schools for girls.

Our Values

Our strength is driven by our values: verity, justice, sincerity, felicity and freedom of spirit.

We nurture these qualities in our students to assist them to become women of purpose, with a profound sense of their own worth and an enduring sense of responsibility to others.

Culture of Excellence

At our heart is a culture of growth and excellence, where every student has the opportunity to flourish in the classroom, on stage, on the sporting field, in positions of leadership and advocacy, and in the pursuit of social justice.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

At Loreto Kirribilli, we have a saying, 'Honouring the past, celebrating the present, inspiring the future'. We honour the people of the Cammeraygal clan who lived, fished and canoed around the spot they called 'kiarabilli', meaning 'good fishing spot'. We honour the pioneering Loreto Sisters who crossed continents and oceans, faced imprisonment and penury, steadfast in their belief in the importance of the education of girls. We celebrate the present, with a rich and varied school life where students are encouraged to discover, uncover and realise their individual strengths, gifts and talents, while learning to make informed choices and decisions for themselves and others in a supportive, nurturing and stimulating environment.

We inspire the future with innovative and engaging experiences designed to prepare our students for a world that is rapidly changing. Our pedagogy enables our students to further develop their skills in critical thinking, collaboration, creativity and communication. We want students to be able to solve complex problems, to be creative designers and future entrepreneurs.

In Loreto Kirribilli's community of faith, we nurture the spiritual, intellectual and social development of our students, so they are tomorrow's women, ready to go out into the world and make a positive difference.

Our values of Mercy, Human Dignity, Justice, Service and Option for the Poor guide our world-class teaching and learning culture, encouraging students to be critical thinkers, problem solvers and innovators.

At Monte, we believe that an innovative education, built on the foundation of choice, well equips young women for a life of significance, purpose and success. We encourage the realisation of potential and as an all-girls' school, we rigorously pursue opportunities that champion female participation and achievement.

At the core of our mission is our focus on activating a passion for lifelong learning through experiences and diverse opportunities. Our rich dual-program curriculum of the Higher School Certificate and the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme challenges learners to be global citizens and responsible stewards. Monte is a world-class school, and we are committed to keeping the College strong for our current and future students. We promote a lasting legacy of opportunity, benefit and female empowerment.

Inspired by the charisma of the Sisters of Mercy, the College educates young women in the Mercy Tradition. This means the College is guided by the values of Mercy, Justice, Service, Human Dignity and Option for the Poor, which are integrated into all curricular and co-curricular activities.

Our Mercy values permeate all aspects of College life and inspire our young women to realise their personal sense of self, spirituality and social responsibility. To some, this dynamic championing may appear revolutionary, but for a Monte student, it is a way of life.

The College belongs to the community of ten schools across Australia called Good Samaritan Education (GSE). Established in 2011 by the Sisters of the Good Samaritan, the mission of Good Samaritan Education is to sustain and nurture our Catholic schools as Good Samaritan Benedictine communities of learning.

The core values of the College are Pax, Hospitality and Stewardship, and the promotion of holistic education in the spirit of Benedictine and Good Samaritan tradition.

'Bennies' girls are able to develop their talents and become articulate, confident and compassionate young women, equipped to transform our world.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

The history of Mount St Benedict College dates back to 1966 when the first classes were held in the basement of the novitiate of the Sisters of the Good Samaritan, now known as the MSB Centre. Now 58 years later, the College welcomes a new era, with the culmination of a grand renovation project heralding the opening of the MSB Centre in 2024.

This state-of-the-art facility, a testament to the College's Good Samaritan heritage, signifies a commitment to academic excellence and a celebration of an enduring past. In its upgraded form, the MSB Centre offers a range of new learning spaces, including 11 new classrooms, multipurpose spaces with modern audio-visual learning aids and a large contemporary external stairwell facing onto the College's heritage Blue Gum Forest. In addition, the MSB Centre will also become the new administration block for the College providing front of house, reception and office space for staff.

100 years of Benedictine heritage is now visible in the balance of old and new, and the College community looks forward to the teaching and learning opportunities the new spaces will open up to our students in the 2024 school year.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Established in 1894, Santa Sabina College, an independent Catholic Dominican school, educates students to achieve personal excellence, act with justice and compassion and embrace the future with an optimistic global vision. The Dominican pillars of Prayer, Study, Community and Service underpin life and learning at the College. Located on eight hectares in Sydney's multicultural inner west, students learn in heritage and modern buildings, spacious playing fields and beautiful gardens.

As an early childhood (from 6 weeks old) to Year 12 campus, students benefit from the continuity of learning approaches from the early years to Year 12. Prep to Year 4 classes are co-educational. Girls are front and centre in Gioia House, our unique program for Years 5 and 6, cocooned in their own area on the Secondary Campus. Years 11 and 12 students choose either the IBDP or HSC. The pastoral care of students is integral to our teaching and learning. Outdoor education programs are delivered on our 97-hectare Southern Highlands campus, Tallong.

We also offer over 20 sports; several critically acclaimed music and drama ensembles and performance opportunities locally, interstate and globally; public speaking and debating; our unique Dominic the Adventurer Award and the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

The College has been educating girls, boys and young women for 130 years, growing from a school of six students and seven Dominican Sisters in Strathfield. In 2024, the College, now an IB school, has grown to cover two blocks on either side of The Boulevarde in Strathfield, as well as 97 hectares in regional NSW.

With Lumination Labs for immersive augmented reality learning, Santa Sabina is proud to remain at the leading edge of education, its unique programs and achievements recognised internationally. Known to be innovative, community service focused and joyful, the College is proud to employ award-winning teachers with diverse experience.

Consistent across our history has been our students' outstanding results in academic and performance music as well as our strength in debating, public speaking, sports, academic and vocational subjects. WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Southern Cross Catholic College is a vibrant, dynamic learning community that provides excellence in Catholic Education. Our approach to education offers each student an incredible opportunity to reach their full potential academically, socially and spiritually.

Our College provides an excellent introduction into careers through the early commencement of Certificate II or III (Stage 6) courses, available to students in Year 9 and 10. These courses are traditionally available to students in Year 11 and 12 only. Early access provides a great pathway for students to complete multiple National certificate qualifications along with their HSC.

In addition, students undertaking a Vocational Education and Training (VET) Pathway are encouraged to commence a School Based Apprenticeship or Traineeship (SBAT) while at school. An SBAT allows students to earn an income by attending work with an employer one day a week, while also completing their qualification course requirements. Southern Cross also boasts the only dedicated Performing Arts High School within Sydney Catholic Schools offering disciplines in Dance, Drama, Music – Instrumental/Voice and Musical Theatre – Singing, Dancing and Acting. We pride ourselves in providing a holistic learning environment that focuses on individual student success in which each student is supported by one significant staff member who is empowered to take constructive action on their behalf.

We are a school with a difference!

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

Although Southern Cross Catholic College Burwood (SCCC) is newly formed, it is situated on historically rich grounds. Formerly Christian Brothers' College, SCCC was founded in 2010. Today, we are proud to operate under two distinct sub-schools, Innovation and Enterprise (VET) along with Performing Arts across Year 9 to 12. The Innovation and Enterprise specialisation provides a focus on employability by providing a wide range of available traineeships and apprenticeships where students are able to fast-track their training into a career.

Our students take certified courses in conjunction with paid work and completing their HSC. At SCCC, we ignite the passion in our students for the Performing Arts, and work with each student to strive for excellence in their chosen stream. Our experienced teachers, in collaboration with industry experts, support each and every student in provisioning the foundation for a career in the Performing Arts into the future. Southern Cross is a unique and special place for young adults to learn and grow. Learning is personalised and supported by mentors, expert professionals and specialist learning facilitators.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Just 3km from Sydney's CBD, our day and boarding school, affectionately known as 'Schols', has been educating young women for nearly 150 years. Our spiritual heart lies in seeking Christ through the Good Samaritan, Benedictine charism, breathing life into the College community and creating the warmth you feel when you enter the gates.

Schols is a school that generates the best in all girls, not only those with special talents or ability. The College is down to earth, strives for success and encourages interest in Art, Music and Sport. Our girls are World Champion Dragon Boaters and National Champions in a range of sports.

Schols enjoys partnerships with its near neighbours – University of Sydney, University of Technology and University of NSW.

These partnerships and some exciting collaborations promote interest and involvement in STEM subjects, as they demonstrate the diverse careers that have their basis in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics.

Boarders have a strong presence in school life. They are at the heart of the College community and their presence presents a vibrant and inclusive community for girls in Years 7 – 12. In a beautiful and peaceful landscape, boarding at St Scholastica's provides wonderful opportunities and experiences for girls.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

In just four years, St Scholastica's College will celebrate its sesquicentenary – 150 years since its founding in 1878 in Pitt Street, Sydney as a Catholic school for girls.

It might have been impossible at that time to contemplate the extraordinary changes to flow from then to the early part of the 21st century. Along the way, the College – in its educational offering – has anchored itself firmly to the ethos of the Good Samaritan and the Benedictine tradition.

But, that anchor has never held back advancement, the acceptance of innovation, the willingness to try new things. Rather, the College's ethos seeks to provide a base to live a good life while, as an institution of learning, it offers scope for young women to be successful in a world where change is not just constant, but increasingly rapid.

The College community respects the past and acknowledges the foundation it provides; is firmly focused on the present and welcomes the opportunities offered by the future, some of which have not yet been imagined.

St Scholastica's College – nearly 150 years on – remains an educational institution of choice for girls and young women.

With a rich legacy of over 400 years in Catholic education, the College, guided by the motto 'Ecclesia in Mundum' ('Church to the World'), envisions graduates who thrive as contributors to a just and equitable global society.

Rooted in the traditions of the Vincentians, Sisters of Charity, and De La Salle Brothers, the institution upholds values integral to a faith-filled community. The College's holistic approach to education emphasises academic achievement, social justice and a caring learning environment. WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Regular attendees of St Vincent's College often experience a unique and enchanting atmosphere within our grounds. While the vibrant energy generated by our joyful and dedicated students is undeniably the most apparent element, there are other factors that contribute to this distinct ambience.

These include the rich historical legacy embedded in the College's buildings, the breathtaking view of Sydney Harbour, the unwavering dedication of our teaching faculty, and the warm and hospitable reception provided by our administrative staff.

Upon closer examination, individuals discover the profound and enduring qualities that set our College apart. We take pride in the legacy established by the Sisters of Charity in 1858, who have made remarkable contributions to the fields of health and education, which adds a layer of reverence to our history.

For 165 years, we have consistently upheld our ethos of providing advantages without fostering a sense of entitlement among our students, creating a truly unique and cherished tradition.

OUR PAST, OUR PRESENT, OUR FUTURE

What holds our past, present and future together is the consistency of our Values - Generosity of Spirit, Hope, Justice, Respect and Service of the Poor. In the very different times since the College was established, the Values have been expressed in ways that give witness to the good news of the Gospel.

We might have traditional values, but our ways of proceeding have always been contemporary.

St Vincent's College offers a city-based location from which to explore the real world in which our students are living and learning.

This is a particularly unique experience for our Boarders who have the opportunity to feel equally at home in the city and their regional or remote homes.

Our Curriculum, Co-curricular, Student Wellbeing and Spirituality programs are preparing students for their future pathways beyond the College.

They join past students and will be joined by future students as they contribute generously to the common good of our world.

PROJECT COMPASSION 2024: FOR ALL FUTURE GENERATIONS

Spanning across the six weeks of Lent each year, Project Compassion brings thousands of Australian schools, parishes and supporters together to raise funds for people living in some of the world's most vulnerable communities.

The theme for Project Compassion is For All Future Generations, and this year, Caritas Australia brings you the stories of three resilient women from different corners of the world – all united in their dream of creating a better tomorrow for all future generations.

MEMORY, MALAWI

Memory grew up in the Mwanza district in southern Malawi with her parents and four siblings. Her parents are subsistence farmers who depend on their crops for survival leaving them vulnerable to the seasons, leading to food insecurity. While girls in Malawi often drop out of school and enter either low income paid work or domestic labour, Memory was selected by local leaders as a candidate for a vocational skills course. With support from CADECOM, Caritas Australia's local partner in Malawi, Memory trained in carpentry to prove that women can work in male-dominated industries. She now works for one of Malawi's largest hydroelectric power companies. She is also a role model and trailblazer for other young women.

"In the future, I want to build a house for my parents because the one they are using now is in a bad condition. I also want to own my own workshop, so I can help the community and employ others in the community."

"Being a female carpenter sets an example to others in my community. They see a woman can do what a man can do," Memory said.

RONITA, PHILIPPINES

Ronita is a 22-year-old mother-of-two living in a slum in the Philippines. Her husband works seven days a week in waste disposal, from 3am to 9pm each day. It is exhausting, laborious work, made harder by the very hot climate. Despite this, Ronita and her husband are only able to rent a very small brick room measuring around 10 square metres.

Growing up, Ronita's family faced many challenges. She grew up with her mum, who worked three jobs because Ronita's father left their family. Ronita has two brothers who married young and never finished school. Ronita left school when she became pregnant as a teenager and was at risk of never re-entering the education system after having her first child at 17. With the support of Caritas Australia's learning and development centre partner in the Philippines, the Faithful Companions of Jesus (FCJ), Ronita resumed her studies. She has since secured a job at a call centre, which required a Grade 12 Senior High School Diploma to apply.

"One day I hope I will be schoolteacher, just like Ma'am Jen and Ma'am Grace," (her former teachers at FCJ), Ronita said. "I feel hopeful for the future... Now it's not impossible for me to achieve my dream... Thank you for that."

LEAIA, SAMOA

Leaia lives on the island of Upolu in Samoa with her five children, her husband, brother, and sister-in-law. Their home is built from recycled scraps and is not connected to a piped water system. Her family used to rely solely on rainwater collected in old fridges, and when their water ran out, she had to walk with her young children to collect water in buckets and containers from a neighbour down the street. The school water supply was also unclean.

"If there isn't enough water the kids can't go to school because the water supply at school isn't clean... Part of their morning routine is to shower before school, so if there's not enough water, they can't attend school. It becomes unhygienic for them," Leaia said.

With the support of Caritas Australia's local partner, Caritas Samoa, a water tank was installed in Leaia's home to harvest rainwater, giving her family a consistent supply, and improving their health and living conditions. The time that was previously used to collect drinking water can now be used for other essential tasks and, most importantly, her children don't have to miss out on school.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

This Lent, your generosity can help Caritas Australia to continue lifting vulnerable people like Memory, Ronita and Leaia out of poverty. Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations.

Schools, Parishes, organisations and individuals are encouraged to donate, as well as walk, swim, cycle or run as part of Caritas Ks, host their own events, such as raffles or trivia nights, or give something up for Lent. All in the name of compassion in action.

Those wanting to support Project Compassion can download resources or join a Mission in Action Webinar to learn more about Caritas Australia's development programs at <https://www.caritas.org.au/project-compassion>

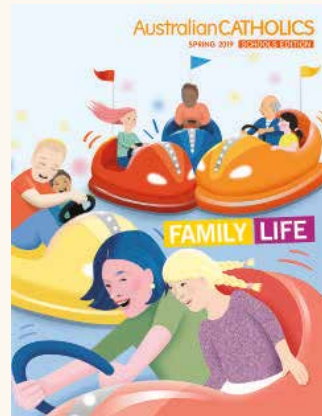

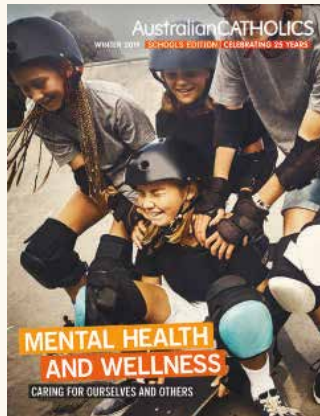

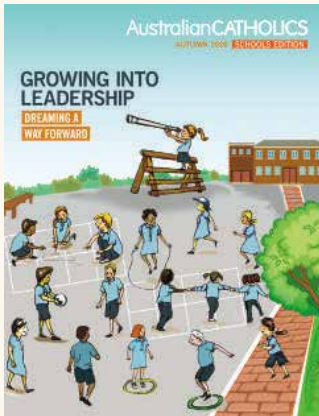

To donate, look out for the Project Compassion donation boxes, visit the website, or call 1800 024 413 toll free.
